Information

On Nov. 13, Independent Resources, Inc. (IRI) will hold its 17th Annual Disability Ball.

Do you have fond memories of a high school prom? Or a college formal dance? For many people with disabilities, these were only dreams, or events they saw in movies or on TV.

The Disability Ball was created to bring together persons with disabilities from diverse backgrounds and communities to socialize and share in a once-in-a-lifetime experience.

Your financial support of this very special event will help make this dream a reality for a new group of attendees again this year.

At the Ball, guests enjoy a social hour, seated-served dinner and dancing to a DJ.

Other activities include the crowning of a King and Queen, a gift drawing and a photographer to record the event.

Because the $65 cost of admission does not completely cover the expenses of the Ball, IRI looks to the generosity of the business community, family members and friends for support.

Benefactors, Sponsors and Donors help subsidize the cost of the event.

Guest Sponsors allow complimentary admissions for those unable to pay on their own. Since many of our attendees need assistance with feeding and mobility, sponsorships in multiples of two are preferred.

Benefactors	$1,000 or more
Sponsors	$500 - $999
Donors	$250 - $499
Table Sponsor	$650 - table of 10
Guest Sponsors	4 @ $65 = $260 2 @ $65 = $130
Special Thanks	In-kind/Volunteer donations

Contributors are acknowledged in all Ball literature and on our website for the coming year.
